DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 34, 37 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Jung (2003/0021253).

Regarding claims 1, 34, 37 and 42, Jung discloses a method of transmitting data from server of virtual private network to mobile node, method which enables Entity A to offer a mobile End User to use at least two Mobile Virtual Network Operators (MVNOs) and enabling an End User to move between MVNOs with no need to register again to the network while using one access device. Entity A (i.e. MVNO ASP) develops an agreement with at least one Mobile Network Operator (MNO) enabling Entity A to use the MNO network to provide a virtual network offering. Entity A enables a MVNO to provide mobile service using Entity A's virtual wireless network (see fig.4, Mobile Node (MN), VPN and its description). A system comprising: An End User wireless device interface, a software system which manages End Users profiles (see fig.4, elements MN, 429, and its description); A software system to track events and track transfers between MVNOs (see fig.1, elements 10, 40, fig.4, elements MN, VPN and its description).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2-33, 35-36, 35-41, and 43-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jung (2003/0021253).

Regarding claims 2-33, 35-36, 35-41, and 43-45, the Examiner takes Official notice that these features purchasing, authorizing, routing select service provider ... etc., are notoriously well known in the art in order to improve the use of mobile device.
